2. PURCHASE OF SHARES

2.1. MODUS OPERANDI

- (a) The Company will always trade standard lots of shares;
- (b) The daily volume of trades shall not exceed the limit of 20% (twenty percent) of the daily volume average of the company's preferred shares traded on stock exchanges in the 20 (twenty) trades prior to the date of the respective purchase of shares by the Company;
- (c) The daily average shall comprise the preferred share volumes traded on BOVESPA – São Paulo Stock Exchange (Brazil).
- (d) The Company will inform the Securities Exchange Commission and BOVESPA – São Paulo Stock Exchange, on a monthly basis, about the volumes traded and prices of the transactions;

2.2. PRIORITY PRINCIPLE TO ADMINISTRATORS

There shall be not simultaneity of purchase orders by the Company with sale orders by the administrators of the Company and its affiliates, subsidiaries or controlling companies. Therefore, the administrators` trades shall be concluded before the purchase orders by the Company take place.

3. IMPEDIMENTS TO TRADES

Operations under these conditions are not allowed:

- (a) when there is a relevant act or fact pending publication by the Company;
- (b) from the 15-day period (fifteen) prior to the publication of the company's quarterly statements and annual report until the day of publication or until the publication day of the edict making them available to the shareholders.
- (c) from the period between the decision by the competent body to increase the Company's stock capital, pay dividends, bonuses in shares or their derivatives, or approve share splits, until the publication of the respective edicts or notices;
- (d) if any agreement or contract has been made aiming at transferring the controlling interest of the Company, either directly or indirectly, or in the event that an option or order has been given for such purpose, or if there is any intent to carry out an incorporation, total or partial spin-off, merger, transformation or corporate restructuring, and while the operation has not been made public by means of the publication of a relevant fact.
- (e) if such operations may likely cause the decrease of the Company`s stock capital, and/or demand the utilization of resources higher than the balance of profits or reserves available, not considering the legal reserve, according to the last Annual Report of the Company;
- (f) if such operations may likely create artificial conditions of demand, offers or share prices involving unfair practices;
- (g) if a public offering to purchase shares is in progress;
- (h) if the quantity of shares issued by the Company and kept in treasury exceed 10% (ten percent) of the preferred shares outstanding (free-floating) on the market, according to the Securities Exchange Commission's Instruction no. 10, dated February 14, 1980, and its alterations.
